From the Hon. J. W. Thompson, U. S. Senator from Kansas: "The Hon. J. W. Thompson, U. S. Senator from Kansas, has been elected to the position of President of the National Association of Manufacturers for the year 1907." The National Association of Manufacturers is a national organization of manufacturers and business men, and is the largest and most influential of its kind in the United States. It is composed of manufacturers and business men from all parts of the country, and its object is to promote the interests of the manufacturing and business community. The association is organized on a national basis, and has a large number of branches in every State and Territory. It is a non-profit organization, and its funds are derived from the contributions of its members. The association is a powerful force in the United States, and its influence is felt in many of the important decisions of the Government. It is a body of men who are interested in the progress of the country, and who are determined to see that the interests of the manufacturing and business community are protected. The election of J. W. Thompson as President of the association is a great honor, and it is a reflection on the high regard in which he is held by his fellow citizens. He is a man of great ability and energy, and he is a man who is deeply interested in the progress of the country. He is a man who is determined to see that the interests of the manufacturing and business community are protected, and he is a man who is determined to see that the country is governed in the best interests of all its citizens.
